

Greece Public Library Social Media Policy

The mission of the Greece Public Library is to engage, inspire and inform through community relevant learning opportunities. In accordance with this mission, the library uses social media to share information about what the library offers and foster community involvement and exchange.

Social media is defined as any website or application that allows people to share information in a virtual environment. Examples include, but are not limited to, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and YouTube.

User comments, posts and messages are welcome on Greece Public Library social media accounts. The library reserves the right to monitor content posted, and to remove any content that it deems, in its sole discretion, to be abusive, offensive, defamatory, commercial or spam, in violation of copyright, trademark right or other intellectual property right of any third party, or otherwise inappropriate for the service. The library in addition reserves the right to reproduce comments, posts and messages in other public venues (removing identifying information other than first name unless prior approval has been granted for full attribution).

By participating in the Greece Public Library's social media services, each user agrees to abide by the library's policies and all applicable federal, state and local laws. By participating in these services, each users agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Greece Public Library and the Town of Greece and their members, officers, trustees and employees from and against any and all claims, actions, causes of actions, costs, expenses, liabilities or damages (including attorney's fees) that arise out of or are related to the content posted by said user.

The Greece Public Library is not responsible for and does not endorse content other than the pages and posts created by Greece Public Library staff. Any views expressed by a user of the library's social media services are those of the individual author and do not represent the official views of the Greece Public Library.

*Approved by Greece Public Library Board of Trustees 06-06-2017
Approved by Town of Greece Attorney 04-26-2017*